TRAVEL BOOK

IN THE MORNING (9.00 AM)

Let's go for a full-day excursion to discover:

THE ROYAL CHÂTEAU OF BLOIS. One of the most prestigious testimonies of Renaissance art in France, a perfect illustration of the evolution of French architecture from the Middle Ages to the 17th century. After discovering the courtyard and its famous spiral staircase, built at the time of Francis I, you can discover the residence of Catherine de Médicis and Henry III, which was the scene of the assassination of the Duke of Guise and the Gaston d'Orléans wing designed by François Mansart.

Lunch in Blois.

IN THE AFTERNOON

THE CHATEAU OF CHAMBORD. More than four centuries after its construction, Chambord still defies the imagination: 156 metres of stone façades, 56-metre-high, and 440 rooms.

THE CHATEAU OF CHEVERNY which became the model for Marlinspike Hall in Hergé's Adventures of Tintin will surprise you with the richness and diversity of its furniture, and the authentic charm and refined decoration of its rooms.
